INVITATION

Our Foundation of SAARC Writers and Literature (FOSWAL), is organising the SOUTH ASIAN LITERATURE FESTIVAL on October 18, 19, 20, 2019 in New Delhi.

We are cordially inviting you to participate in this festival. The festival is open for public participation and we cordially invite interested parties to take part in it.

The THEME of the Festival is :

Humanism : Culture, Emotions and Literature

Please read your:

a) marvellous poems

Or

b) favourite passages from your books

Or

c) Paper on the above theme

A unique and exciting feature in this year's festival is that story writers, novelists and non-fiction writers will read their favourite passages from their books, or present their Papers on the above theme. And poets will read their poems.

Reading shall be for 10 minutes each. Poetry reading shall be for 6 minutes each and a maximum of 2 short poems per poet.

It will be an occasion to celebrate eminent senior and young writers who have made a difference to our thinking. We shall also hear the marginalized and subaltern writers.

Please remember that all the readings will be in ENGLISH LANGUAGE ONLY, so that delegates from all the countries can enjoy them. We are here to spread our creative message to all the neighbouring countries to promote compassion beyond borders.
